

CASE STUDY

Joyce Hambling

Fashion and Textiles

This course has been brilliant for me; not just because I've learnt so many new skills but also because the support and friendship of my classmates has meant so much.

The standard of instruction is excellent and the resources we've had access to have been great... however the best and most amazing component has been our tutor without whom I may well have given up weeks ago.

The lining for my jacket used one of the Japanese 'Shibori' techniques. A method of resist dyeing that uses tying, twisting, pleating and binding as a technique to resist dye, so that the resulting fabric has areas which are dyed and undyed.

I used silk crepe, this was iron pleated then zig-zag folded into a box pattern. Squares of mount board were then inserted before it was clamped tight and immersed into a dye bath.

Paris Malone Fashion and Textiles

Before I came on this course I had absolutely no confidence using a sewing machine.

I also had no experience with cutting fabric. I did a fashion course elsewhere, around seven years ago but was not able to complete it. This course has given me back so much confidence. I was taught so very well by my tutor, who has so much patience and tolerance. I have really enjoyed every bit of it!
