It was incredible. It was so captivating. Your characters were so clear right from the beginning, I wanted to know what was happening, I was engaged. Choreographically it was so visually stunning.

Lukas Tyrell MacFarlane

It was fabulous. It was very unique, very different to anything we have seen here today, and everyone was an actor, everyone on that stage knew how to act to their dance. I love originality that is what we need today.

Intensive Dance Training

Do you want to engage in intensive dance training, pursue further professional dance training and develop a dance related career?

This might be the course for you. A one year dance programme which was originally developed in partnership with Birkbeck, University of London.

The programme is mainly centred on regular technique classes and creative workshops in Contemporary dance and classical Ballet.

It aims to prepare individuals wishing to audition and progress onto Professional Dance Training courses and or just wanting to engage in more intensive training. This course offers particularly good structured training for people in full time work. As well as one Ballet class and one Contemporary dance class a week (Mondays 6-9pm); you will be given performance opportunities including a fully staged production in a theatre at the end of the course.

Entry Requirement:

You should have some experience as a performer, who has received training in dance, and be presently capable of working at Improvers level (fundamental technical skills clearly understood and embodied) in Contemporary Dance and/ or elementary level (Confident grasp of the basic movement vocabulary) in classical Ballet.

To enrol on this course all interested participants must attend an audition.

To attend the audition, please contact us at:

CASE STUDY

Gabriella Sandoval

Ballet and contemporary dance courses

I have been attending Ballet and Contemporary Dance courses at Idea Store Learning since 2012.

When I first started I was a beginner and over the years, thanks to good tutoring, discipline and hard work, I have been able to progress onto higher level courses and even become a member of our adult community performance group (Ideachor). I always try to be proactive and I am not afraid to ask questions or discuss the subject during and after classes. I also like to help other students and last year I took part in our learner volunteer program and assisted in a beginners course. During this time, I was able to develop some leadership and teaching skills which has helped me to gain the necessary confidence to start my own dance business.

In summer 2015 I became a member of Samba Mojito and in March 2016 I took over the management of the group and am now engaging in paid private and public events in London. In March 2017 our Ideachor group took part in MOVE IT 2017, one of London's largest dance events. We were commissioned to close the festival on the main stage. I am also now teaching and choreographing at 'Caramelo', London's largest Latin dance school. Despite my new interest in Latin dances, I still attend courses in Ballet and contemporary dance, at Idea Store Learning, to further develop my technique and skills as well as taking part in Ideachor Performance Group.

Assessment Sessions for Performing Arts

Learners wanting to enrol on the Intensive Dance Training or the Ideachor Performance Group will have to attend an audition with the course tutor on the specified dates and times.
