CASE STUDY

Maria Micallef

Printmaking

The course was new to me and I found it exiting. I loved working with the other students and my Tutor.

Everyone helps each other, its fab. I loved art from school and this is the first chance I've had to try some of my ideas out. I was a bit nervous but I just went for it and I love it!

I have enjoyed the whole experience and feel I am much more confident both in techniques and combining ideas in screen printing.

CASE STUDY

Radka Inovecka

Improve your Painting and Drawing

Radka Inovecka attended classes at the Shadwell Centre three years ago. Since then, she has become an artist and presently has her own exhibition in Prague.

"I took three terms of "Improve your Painting and Drawing". It was great, the classes were clear and easy to follow, a nice place and the atmosphere was very relaxed and very motivating. It made me feel that everything I want to do is possible.

I did all sorts of things on the course. This was awesome because Mark (the tutor) sometimes suggested we forget about traditional art 'rules'...so we tried, let's say Cubist or Impressionistic styles. It kind of opened my mind, I remember him saying that nothing is wrong; everything we make is ours. We also tried painting portraits in unreal colours, painting moods, and still-life drawing. In one session we used plastic cutlery instead of brushes, there were also experiments with drawing to music. Of course, there were also some art basics like sketching, how to mix colours, art theory and some history about famous artists and art movements.

This definitely helped me. Before that, I was scared to have my own ideas about art, to try different styles and then to find what suits me, I didn't believe in my abilities. During the lessons it was like somebody opening doors for me and behind each door I found so many possibilities, just waiting for me to choose them!
