CASE STUDY

Neil Lamont
Printmaking

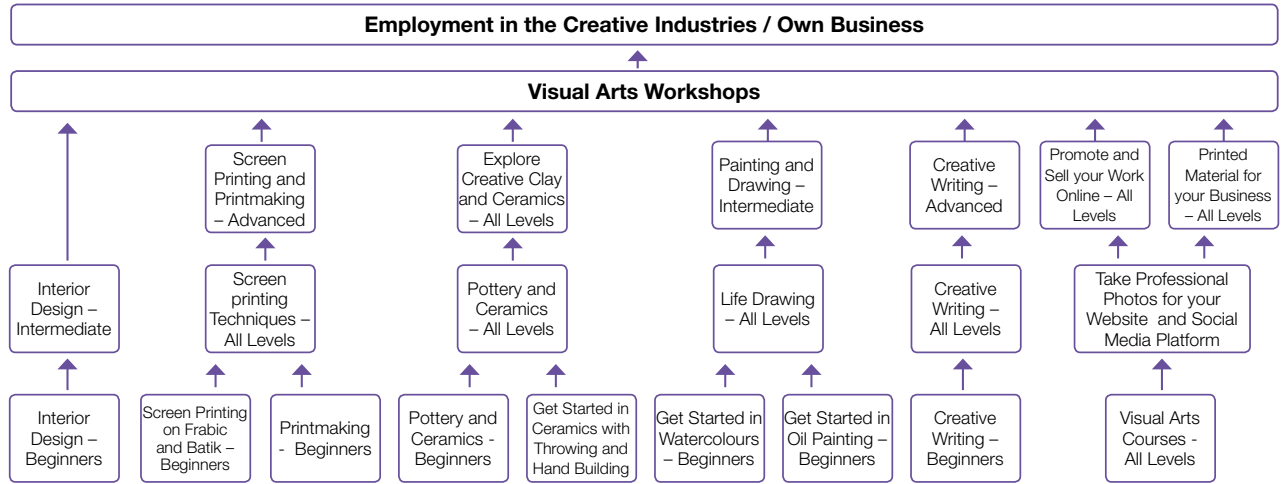

“The Shadwell Centre is a very special place, it seems to hold the imprint of learning from many years.

Myself, I have been a print student here for 4 years now. I love the blend of excellent teaching and support. I feel very comfortable in this environment and I know I can develop my skills and ideas here.”

“I have enjoyed the whole experience and feel I am much more confident both in techniques and combining ideas in screen printing.”

CASE STUDY

Saphrine Hayden - Painting and Drawing

“I joined the course to improve my painting and drawing skills, learn how to correctly use media and gain confidence.

I was excited to start the course and it more than surpassed my expectations! The sessions were in a welcoming, non-judgmental and progressive learning environment. I found it to be an inspiring and insightful experience from start to finish; full of practical exercises, demonstrations, group discussions and homework assignments that encouraged further practice and understanding of the topics we learnt. It was pleasantly surprising how much we covered within the 10-week period, my favorite parts of the course were the oil painting segment and being in a group with people who had similar interests who motivate and encourage each other. This course has definitely given me the confidence to continue painting and I will be taking part in the ‘Promote and Sell your Work Online’ course to help exhibit and sell my work in the near future.”
